USA Cares' mission is to provide post-9/11 military veterans, service members, and their families with financial assistance and post service skills training to create a foundation for long-term stability. Our services improve the quality of life for veterans and their families and reduce potential factors that can contribute to veteran suicide.

MISSION MOMENT: Jesus Martinez Rodriguez

Living in Puerto Rico, Air Force Veteran Jesus Martinez Rodrigues had gone through enough hurricanes to know that life without water or utilities is not one he wanted for his children. So when late bills threatened to disrupt his family's home, he reached out to USA Cares.

Dear Friends,

September is Suicide Awareness Month and it's, perhaps, the biggest awareness month for USA Cares outside of any time set aside to remember and recognize our military and its veterans. To date, we have lost more than 30,000 service members and veterans to suicide since 9/11, four times the number we've lost in combat. Even more troublesome is the recent data, released this April, that shows the VA's Veterans Crisis Line fielded a record of more than 88,000 calls, texts, and chats in the month of March.

The statistics related to suicide among service members and veterans are staggering, and I'm often met with shock and concern when I share them with people while representing USA Cares. The issue, though, is too many are doing what our new staff member, Rick, calls "admiring the problem." (Meet him and the rest of our HVRP staff in our News section below.)

The good news is the work of USA Cares has a real and important effect on veteran suicide, and our supporters have already made an impact on military families all over the country. Jesus, featured in the story above, reminds us that financial crises can happen to all types of veterans, regardless of location or background.

I want to share my gratitude for the work of our Gala Committee, and for all those that attended our 20th Anniversary Gala in August. We were humbled by the outpouring of support and look forward to assisting many more veteran and military families because of it.

Helping USA Cares provide that assistance, however, does not require big checks or formal events. Our News section is full of opportunities for everyone to play a part in the USA Cares mission. Please consider donating during Give For Good, attending a local chapter event, or encouraging your employer to sponsor a USA Cares event. We can all make an impact and truly stop 'admiring the problem.'

Let us use the month of September to provide hope and encouragement to the service members and veterans battling the war within. It is through your generosity and support that we not only change lives, but save them.

Every donation USA Cares receives helps to change a veteran and their family's life. With the financial need for each veteran continuing to increase, many feel like their single donation is not doing enough. This is where the Cadence Monthly Giving Program comes in.

An automated donation of $35 every month ($420/year) pays for a veteran's monthly grocery bill; $50 per month ($600/year) pays a monthly car payment; $100 per month ($1,200/year) pays a monthly mortgage payment. Your commitment provides USA Cares with a steady, reliable income stream and is the best way to allow us to focus on helping our veteran heroes and their families.
